

BIOSKETCH

DR. SETH THOMAS, MD, FACEP

DIRECTOR OF QUALITY AND PERFORMANCE, CEP AMERICA
MEMBER, BOARD OF DIRECTORS, SSVMS

Dr. Seth Thomas is a Director of Quality & Performance for CEP America's Emergency Medicine service line. His expertise and administrative duties are focused on improving emergency department operations, clinical quality, efficiency and throughput. Dr. Thomas also serves on the board of directors for the Mutual, CEP America's medical malpractice RRG. Dr. Thomas is board certified in emergency medicine and the former medical director of the emergency departments at both Mercy San Juan Medical Center and Doctors Medical Center of San Pablo. He currently practices emergency medicine at Mercy San Juan in Sacramento, California. Dr. Thomas completed his undergraduate studies at UC Berkeley before attending medical school at Albany Medical College in New York. He completed his residency in emergency medicine at Loma Linda University Medical Center before joining CEP America as an administrative fellow in 2009-2010.

